

DIGI 3000

Information Management and Scholarly Communication

Location: DigiLab, 300 Main Library
Spring 2018 * Tuesdays *

Instructor: Kristin Nielsen
3:30-4:20

Information

From manuscripts and published texts to visual arts and new media, humanities research is simultaneously traditional and groundbreaking. Students will develop the skills needed to do research in the humanities and learn the history of and current issues in the dissemination and organization of information.

Counts toward the Undergraduate Digital Humanities Certificate
See digi.uga.edu for details. 1 credit. Open to all majors